There are countless ways to experience the beauty of Snohomish County. Start on the water, wander the cities and small towns, or head for the mountains. Stay longer to discover it all.

WHERE THE WATER SETS THE PACE

Ferry rides, quiet bays, and working waterfront towns define the Salish Coast. Paddle the shoreline, wander the marinas, and stay for fresh seafood and sunset views. Salt air included.

LOCAL LIFE COMES TOGETHER

Walkable downtowns filled with restaurants, craft breweries, record stores, and galleries bring the county's creative energy together. Park once and follow your curiosity.

THE VALLEY OPENS WIDE

Historic towns, farmland, and river landscapes shape this stretch of the county. Scenic roads, farm stands, and open space invite you to slow down, see what's growing along the way, and take it all in.

THE MOUNTAINS BEGIN HERE

Follow the rivers upstream toward forest trails, alpine lakes, and the first big views of the Cascade Mountains. This is where the road starts climbing.

EMBRACE YOUR WILD SIDE

Granite peaks, waterfalls, and glacier-fed rivers are around every bend in the Cascade Range. A true wilderness to explore featuring Mount Baker and Glacier Peak. Be prepared and please follow Leave No Trace principles.
